v.

VAL SKLAROV, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 1:19-cv-03561-AT

CONSENT ORDER

Introduction

On August 6, 2019, Plaintiffs filed a Complaint against Defendants, alleging trademark infringement-related claims under the Lanham Act, as well as under Georgia state law. (Complaint, Doc. 1). Simultaneously with the filing of its Complaint, Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Preliminary Injunction. (Doc. 6-1). Defendants moved to dismiss (Doc. 23), which Plaintiffs opposed.

The Court conducted a hearing on the Motions on October 10, 2019 (Minute Entry, Doc. 31), at which time it denied Defendants' Motion to Dismiss from the bench (Doc. 34 at 4-5, 46-47), and granted Plaintiffs' Motion for Preliminary Injunction pending final approval of an injunction order. (Doc. 34 at 26-28).

Subsequently, the Court issued a February 13, 2020 Memorandum Opinion on Jurisdictional Ruling, permitting Plaintiffs to take jurisdictional discovery with respect to certain Defendants (Doc. 41) and a February 24, 2020 Preliminary Injunction Order and Memorandum (Doc. 42).

Counsel for the Parties have informed the Court by letter that in order to avoid the burden, delays, and uncertainty of litigation, they have entered into a Settlement Agreement on terms that include entry of a Consent Order for Permanent Injunction (the “Consent Order”) binding all Parties and certain other persons and, only after such entry, entry of an order dismissing the Action under Fed R. Civ. P. 41(a)(2). Counsel for Defendants have also informed the Court that all Defendants, including those which challenged personal jurisdiction of this Court previously, have consented to submit themselves to the personal jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of entry of the Consent Order and enforcement of the Consent Order and/or Settlement Agreement, including a proceeding for contempt of court.

Jaitegh Singh, Esq., counsel for Defendants Lincoln Capital Ltd. and Newburgh Capital Ltd., has also provided the Court with a document signed by or on behalf of Lincoln Capital Ltd., Newburgh Capital Ltd., and Igor Mykolaiovych Ushenko, which are not parties to the Action, under which each of them has agreed to be included in and bound by the terms of the Consent Order and Settlement Agreement and to submit themselves to personal jurisdiction in this District in any proceeding brought to enforce the Consent Order and/or Settlement Agreement, including a proceeding for contempt of court.

In addition, all Parties and Lincoln Capital Ltd., Newburgh Capital Ltd., and Igor Mykolaiovych Ushenko have requested that the Court retain continuing jurisdiction for purposes of enforcing this Consent Order and the Settlement Agreement.

WHEREFORE, the Parties and other persons and entities stated above having freely given their consent, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that:

Defendants in this action, as well as Lincoln Capital Ltd., Newburgh Capital Ltd., and Igor Mykolaiovych Ushenko, and all of their officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and any other persons who are in active concert or participation with anyone described herein, or who have received actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise within the meaning of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 65(d), are permanently enjoined from:

8. Doing any other act or thing calculated or likely to cause confusion or mistake in the trade or the minds of the public, or to deceive actual or potential purchasers into believing that any of their goods or services originate with any of the Plaintiffs or are approved, licensed, or otherwise authorized by any of the Plaintiffs;

9. Registering or prosecuting any application to register BENTLEY ROTHSCHILD, MAYER AMSCHEL ROTHSCHILD CAPITAL, or any other mark including the name or word "Rothschild," as a mark in the United States or in any other country; and
